

THE GAZETTE.

WEDNESDAY EVENING, JANUARY 28.

MISCELLANEOUS ITEMS.—The accomplished John W. Carochan, M. D., has been appointed health officer of the port of New York city, Governor Hoffman. It is a lucrative and distinguished trust, but it ought to be coincidently so to tempt so successful and esteemed a man to leave his immense practice.

According to the New York papers, the small pox and typhus fever are prevailing in that city to a considerable extent. The Herald of Sunday says that eight new cases were reported in several different parts of the city on Saturday evening. The World of Sunday has the following on the subject:—"The spread of contagious diseases among the poor class of the population of this city has for some time past excited considerable comment in all grades of society."

Alfred Henning, the oldest member of the New Orleans bar, died in that city on Saturday last. He was born in Maryland in 1780, and in 1802 went to New Orleans, making the trip down the Ohio and Mississippi rivers on a flatboat. He was a brilliant scholar.

Among the revenue returns for the past month are those of the executors of the estate of the late Edwin A. Stevens, at Hoboken, New Jersey. The returns, exclusive of the property left to his widow, which is not subject to tax, are over five and a half millions of dollars, of which $4,888,670 is given to the children, and $762,500 to the Stevens Institute. Upon the former there is a tax of one percent, amounting to $48,886, and upon the latter a tax of six per cent, amounting to $45,750, making a total tax of $94,636.

Henry Placide, a well known actor died recently at Babylon, Long Island. He was a native of South Carolina and advanced in years.

Prof. B. Winslow Dudley, of the Transylvania University, died at Lexington, Ky., last week, over 80 years of age. He was considered one of the most distinguished surgical men of the West and Southwest.

Mr. Sumner has presented a memorial to the Senate in opposition to the proposed enlargement of the West Point Military Academy. The opposition is based on the ground that this academy is not conducive to loyalty.
